Before a vote is taken, the chair must note whether any proxy votes with a voting direction have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.

Voting must be conducted and decided by:

- (a) a show of hands
- (b) a vote in writing, or
- (c) another method chosen by the chair that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

33.4 When a resolution is passed

- (a) A resolution (other than a special resolution) is passed if at least 50% of the total votes are in favour of the resolution being passed.

- (b) If there is a vote conducted by a show of hands, the chair's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote by show of hands. The chair and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

33.5 When and how a vote in writing may be demanded

A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of, or after, a vote by a show of hands by:

33.6 When and how a vote in writing must be held

A proxy does not need to be a member.

34.2 What a proxy can and can't do

A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member to:

- (b) vote in writing (but only in the manner allowed by the appointment), and
- (c) demand a vote in writing under clause 33.5.

A proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (but this does not prevent a member appointed as a proxy from voting as a member on a show of hands).

A proxy does not have the authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting while the member is at the meeting in person or by technology.

34.3 How a proxy votes

When a vote in writing is held, a proxy:

- (a) does not need to vote, unless the proxy appointment specifies the way they must vote
